JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT

THE HIGH COURT OF MYSORE AT BANGALORE.

Notification No. 18—50-51,

Dated 5th September 1950.

Rules framed by the High Court in regard to the issue of Writs under Article 226 of the Constitution of India.

The High Court of Mysore, in the exercise of its rule making powers vested in it under Article 227 of the Constitution of India, and with the previous approval of His Highness the Maharaja, the Rajpramukh of Mysore, hereby makes the following rules to regulate the procedure to be followed for the disposal of applications for the issue of writs under Article 226 of the Constitution of India.

PART I.

Writs in the nature of Habeas Corpus :—

The rules framed by the High Court under Section 491 of the Code of Criminal Procedure and published under High Court Notification No. R. Dis. 8 of 1948-49, dated 14th August 1948, shall apply mutatis mutandis to applications for writs in the nature of habeas corpus under Article 226.

Provided that during vacation such applications may be disposed of by a single Judge.

PART II.

Writs for any other purpose including writs in the nature of mandamus prohibition, quo warranto and certiorari:—

1. An application for the issue of any of the aforesaid writs shall be entitled "in the matter of an application for the issue of the writ of (here mention the name of the particular writ) under Article 226 of the Constitution of India."

2. An application for the issue of any of the above writs shall state the name and description of the applicant, who shall be called the 'petitioner', the particular relief sought and the grounds on which it is sought and shall be supported by an affidavit. The opposite party against whom the order is sought shall be called the 'respondent.'

3. Every such application shall state whether the applicant has exhausted all other legal remedies open to him to get reordress.

4. Every such application shall be presented in the manner required by Rules (1) and (2) of the High Court Rules and the applicant shall also furnish two copies of such application and affidavit.

5. Every application presented under the above rules shall be registered as a Civil Petition and shall be heard by a Division Bench except during vacation, when it may be heard by a single Judge.

6. Every such application shall be posted in the first instance for hearing the petitioner or his counsel; and the Division Bench before which it is posted, may, on the day fixed, either dismiss summarily the application after hearing the petitioner or his counsel if he appears, or order notice to the respondent calling upon him to appear on a day named therein, to show cause why the application should not be granted. Unless the Court otherwise, directs, there shall be at least fourteen clear days between the service of the notice on the respondent and the day named therein for the hearing of the application.

7. If the Court orders notice to be issued to the respondent, it may pass such interim order in the case, either unconditionally or upon such terms as the Court thinks just, as the nature and circumstances of the case require. The notice ordered as above along with a copy of the interim order, if any, and a copy each of the application and affidavit shall be served on the respondent in the manner prescribed for the service of summons upon a defendant in a suit. The petitioner shall furnish within two days from the date of order directing issue of notice, a copy each of the said application and affidavit and, if there are more respondents than one, as many copies of them as there are respondents, for being served on the other party along with the notice.

8. The respondent shall file an affidavit in reply in the office of the Registrar and serve a copy thereof upon the applicant or his Advocate as the case may be, at least two days before the date of hearing mentioned in the notice.

9. The Court in its discretion may at any time before the final order is made direct that the notice be served on any party to be affected by any order which the Court may make in the matter and the procedure prescribed in the above rules for service of notice and filing of an affidavit in reply shall be followed in such a case.

10. If any material question is put in issue either in the application showing cause or in the affidavit in answer to it the Court may allow oral testimony of witnesses to be taken adjourning the hearing to some other date. Either party in such a case may take summonses to witnesses, and the procedure shall be similar to that followed in a suit.

11. In case of difference of opinion between the Judges composing the Division Bench any point of difference between them shall be referred to a Full Bench comprising not less than three Judges and the decision of the majority of the Judges comprising the Full Bench shall be the decision of the High Court.

12. The costs and orders made in these proceedings shall be in the discretion of the Court.

13. Subject to these rules, the provisions of the rules with respect to Civil suits and matters shall apply, so far as may be, to all proceedings under Article 226.

By Order of the High Court,

B. R. RAMALINGIAH,
Registrar.
